PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

DELL, Commercial IoT, Austin, TX

July 2015-Feb 2017

Product Marketing & Messaging

Messaging Manager for intelligent IoT gateways and embedded PCs, a new, entrepreneurial LOB at Dell for the Internet of Things, so that Dell was viewed as the leader in IoT infrastructure per an IDC global survey. Worked closely with market activators, events organizers, analyst outreach, manufacturing SMEs, channel managers, social media, professional services, IoT partners and others to create and ensure consistent strategy and messaging. Helped manage an internal certification program to be a SocialSME on the IoT.

- Created and launched IoT product web pages and marketing collateral in 18 languages across the globe.
- For a challenging global product launch, synthesized GTM messaging that was replicated in 80+ pieces of analyst and media coverage, and won a Frost & Sullivan “best innovation & strategy” award.
- Co-managed the partner exhibit at Dell EMC World 2016 on real-world IoT that was declared the No.1 strategic showcase, gathering much analyst and media praise. Co-created 15 demo stations, messaging and IoT blueprints with partners (ex: IBM, SAP, GE Predix, Emerson Process...).

DELL SERVICES, Round Rock, TX

May 2014-July 2015

Senior Marketing Consultant and Storyteller

Part of new 4-member marketing team for BFSI (banks, financial service, securities and insurance) services. Led solo and joint sales and marketing programs with cloud services, big data, workforce productivity, and other enterprise solutions. Team was restructured when divestiture occurred (to NTT Data).

- Launched Livestream think tank event with 16 speakers on financial service digital transformation, achieving reach of 2.5 million+ in social media and approximately 200% of lead generation goal.
- Redesigned, wrote and launched first responsive design web zone for Dell Services, including managing user experience and SEO, resulting in tripled web traffic to BFSI pages in two months.

CSC, FINANCIAL SERVICES GROUP, Austin, TX

2004-2013

Marketing Communications Manager

Managed creative accounts and internal communications in a 25-person in-house ad agency for this Fortune 150 company’s Banking, Global Marketing and Latin America Financial Services Groups. Led team of creative employees in a Six Sigma project, cutting schedules by 28% and improving quality of deliverables. Started as Senior Editorial and Media Relations Manager and promoted to Marketing Communications Manager.

- Led pilot projects using Eloqua campaigns, social media and SEO/SEM; delivered 500+ web and print campaigns, pieces of print and video collateral, industry tradeshow, exec events and webinars.
- Managed the global launch of a new core-banking suite, including AR/MR, branding, live launch event, ads, lead generation and collateral that helped get the product identified in the top 3 solutions.

PLANVIEW SOFTWARE, Austin, TX
Marketing Director1997-2004

Founded the Marketing Department for a global, privately held, project/resource management software company. Provided a full spectrum of marketing support, including all copywriting, lead generation, events, web design, P&L budgeting, media and analyst relations. Built department to 3.5 people, managed a $1.5M budget, and consistently convinced key industry analysts to list Planview as a Top 3 vendor.

- Generated an increase in Web leads of an average of 400+ percent per month with analysis, rewrite and redesign of the company's Web site.
- Identified a key opportunity in pharmaceutical product management; wrote the brief and managed meetings with research analysts to kick it off; it's now a major channel generating revenue.
